

How to setup POP3 Email Account in iPad

This article will guide you on how to setup POP email account from iPad.

1. If this is the first account you're setting up on the iPad tap Mail. Otherwise, from the Home screen tap Settings -> Mail -> Accounts -> Add Account.

2. Choose your email account type. For setting up email to work with your domain email address tap Other.

3. Enter your Name , Address(email address), Email Password ,and description.

4. Tap SAVE POP and IMAP will be show on top on bar. You are allow to choose POP3 or IMAP when setup domain email into iPad.

The screenshot shows the 'New Account' setup screen on an iPad. At the top, there are 'Cancel' and 'Save' buttons. Below them are two tabs: 'IMAP' and 'POP'. The 'POP' tab is currently selected and highlighted in blue. The form contains the following fields:

- Name: test
- Address: test@phuket.ksc.co.th
- Description: Demo email
- Incoming Mail Server:
 - Host Name: mail.phuket.ksc.co.th
 - User Name: test@phuket.ksc.co.th
 - Password: masked with four dots
- Outgoing Mail Server:
 - Host Name: mail.phuket.ksc.co.th
 - User Name: test@phuket.ksc.co.th
 - Password: masked with four dots

5. Tap POP so it will highlighted.

6. Fill in all as below POP Info Name : Email name , Address (full email address), and Description.
Incoming Mail server : host name: mail.phuket.ksc.co.th, Username: (full email address)
Password (email password) > click done/verify.

The image shows a settings screen for configuring a POP email account. It is divided into two main sections: "POP Account Information" and "Incoming Mail Server".

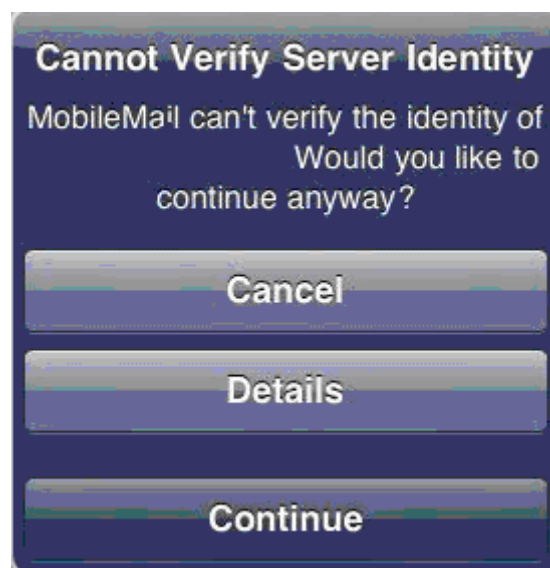

POP Account Information

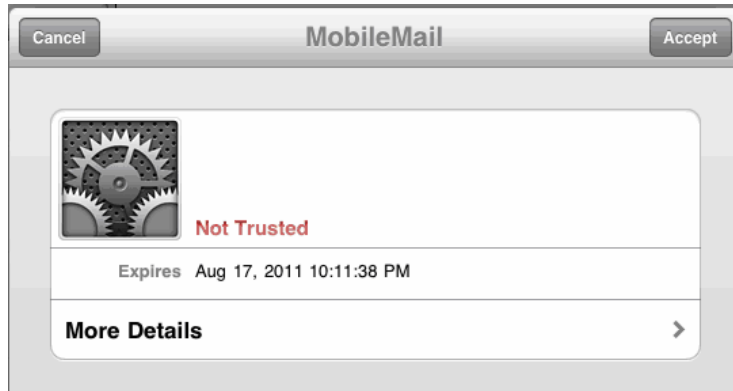

Name	test
Address	test@phuket.ksc.co.th
Description	Your domain

Incoming Mail Server

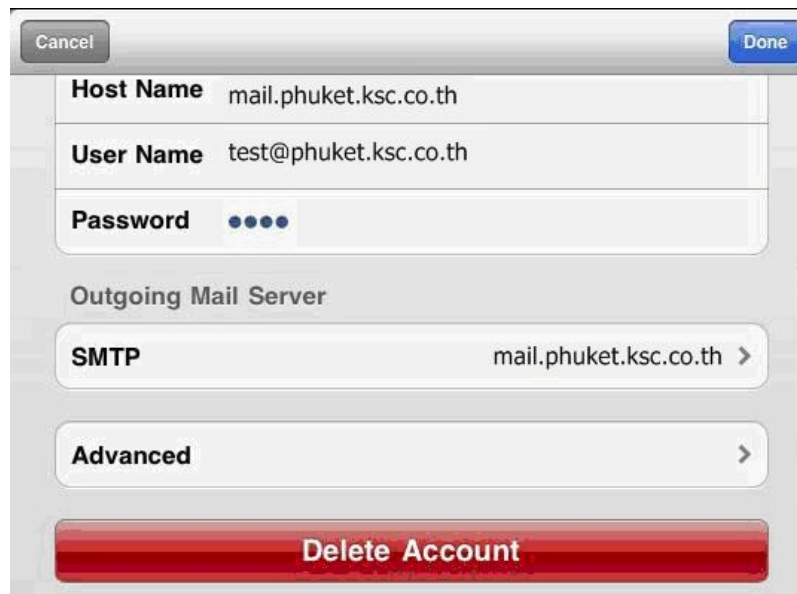

Host Name	mail.phuket.ksc.co.th
User Name	test@phuket.ksc.co.th
Password	••••

7. If system showing message as Cannot verify server identity, tap Details and tap Accept.

8. After accept, go back HOME go to -> Settings -> Mail, Contacts, Calendars -> Tap (email account you setup earlier) and check POP and SMTP (outgoing mail server) setting.

9. Tap SMTP mail.phuket.ksc.co.th > tap mail.yourdomain.com On.

The screenshot shows the 'Server' settings page. At the top, there is a toggle switch labeled 'Server' which is turned 'ON'. Below this is the 'Outgoing Mail Server' section. It contains several fields: 'Host Name' is 'mail.phuket.ksc.co.th', 'User Name' is 'test@phuket.ksc.co.th', and 'Password' is masked with four dots. There is a 'Use SSL' toggle switch which is turned 'OFF'. The 'Authentication' is set to 'Password' with a right-pointing arrow. At the bottom, the 'Server Port' is set to '25'.

10. Check your SMTP SSL: off (enable it if your webmail come with SSL) ,
Authentication: Password, Server Port number : 25 Once confirm tap DONE.

The screenshot shows the 'Advanced' settings page. At the top, there is a back arrow and the title 'Advanced'. Below this is the 'Deleted Messages' section with a 'Remove' button and a dropdown menu set to 'After one week'. The 'Incoming Settings' section contains: 'Use SSL' toggle switch turned 'OFF', 'Authentication' set to 'Password' with a right-pointing arrow, 'Delete from server' set to 'Never' with a right-pointing arrow, and 'Server Port' set to '110'.

11. Go back to email setting page , click advance to check your POP setting, SSL: off, Authentication: Password, Server Port : 110, if you enable SSL you are require set it as : 995.

12. Tap Done/Verify, Your iPad is now configure to send and receive your domain email.